

I oppose relaxing regulations on media cross-ownership. Such relaxation will result in consolidation of ownership in a few corporate centers and stifle free and independent news and editorial processes.